Dah Sing Bank Statement on Fraudulent E-mails

Dah Sing Bank would like to alert its customers and the public-at-large to certain fraudulent e-mails purporting to be issued by a staff member of Dah Sing Bank Limited. Recipients of these e-mails were invited to participate in an arrangement to share a substantial amount of money and were requested to provide their personal information to the fraudster.

Dah Sing Bank would like to advise that these e-mails were not issued by any staff member or authorized person of Dah Sing Bank and/or the Dah Sing Banking Group, nor any of its subsidiaries. Dah Sing Bank does not accept any responsibility for the e-mails or the content thereof. Dah Sing Bank would like to advise that if customers and the public is suspected about the identity of relevant person, they should not pass any personal data under any circumstances.

Dah Sing Bank has reported the case to the Hong Kong Monetary Authority and the Hong Kong Police Force. Any customer or individual who receives fraudulent e-mails of this kind is advised to contact the Hong Kong Police Force or call Dah Sing Bank Customer Services Hotline on 2828 8000.
