Dah Sing Bank Announces The Latest Arrangements for Branch Operations

(Hong Kong, 17 February 2022) -- Dah Sing Bank, Limited (the "Bank") today announces that in order to better protect the public health interest of our customers and staff and in line with the Government's latest pandemic measures, the below arrangements will be made for its branch operations.

Temporary Closure of Causeway Bay Branch

The Bank's Causeway Bay Branch will be temporarily closed from 18 – 22 February 2022 as one of the branch staff members has confirmed infection of Covid-19 today. The branch has been closed immediately for thorough cleaning and disinfection. Other staff members working at the same branch have been notified immediately and will take the Covid test, and will return to work upon confirmation of negative results. Causeway Bay Branch is scheduled to reopen on 23 February 2022.

Customers are advised to visit the nearby branches for banking services and are encouraged to use alternative channels such as Dah Sing Bank's Phone Banking, e-Banking and Mobile Banking services as necessary.

Given the current Covid-19 development and the need to adopt appropriate social-distancing measures, the suspension of quote terminals at the Securities Centres of our branches will be extended until further notice.

The Bank remains vigilant in safeguarding the safety and well-being of our customers and staff amidst the current development of Covid-19, and will continue to implement the following precautionary measures:

- Conduct body temperature check for customers and require them to wear face mask when entering our branches;
- Staff to wear face masks during meetings with customers and external parties or when handling customer transactions;
- Staff who are unwell to stay at home to rest or seek immediate medical advice;
- Regular cleaning and sanitation arrangements of all branches and offices.

The Bank will continue to closely monitor the public health situation and consider making adjustments as necessary.
